Ever had the chance to sit down to interview a possible vendor and walk away with a friend? That's what happened to me today. I met with Robin R. Robbins of RRR Consulting & Publishing, which you can also find her on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/rrrconsultingnpublishing> Now after a few minutes of the small talk, Robin came to life and her passion for helping others made the next hour one that far exceeded my expectation for our meeting today.

Thank-you Robin for your time today, and for the support you've already sent my way. I'm looking forward to working with you in the VERY near future.

PS Thanks Kirk Davis for "pushing" me in the right direction. September 27, 2011 at 5:00 p.m.

"" Dynamic. Energetic. Charismatic. Influential. Just a few words in an attempt to share with you the powerfulness of the information you will receive from Robin's presentations. Whether you are a sole proprietor, a small business or a large corporation, Robin can help you and your employees achieve new levels of inspiration and motivation that are sure to increase your revenue margins. Her expertise fans out over many areas in her niche. When you book for your next speaker, it would be wise choice to put Robin on your calendar. September 19, 2011 at 8:38am

"" I have personally known, Robin, for over 20 years. She has always been a phenomenal person to know. Feeling overwhelmed with the ever changing economy and dealing with upcoming budget cuts with the Tacoma School District, I didn't know where to start with my own resume. She gives you hope in this job market and takes the "bull by the horns" and gets the daunting job of getting your skills down on paper! She brings out the best in everyone that crosses her path. I cannot express enough gratitude for the services and time she has spent with my husband and I and instilling hope that we can maintain the comfortable lifestyle we have worked so hard for together. Robin, you are an asset to our planet! September 10, 2011 at 7:40pm

"" Although I have yet to utilize Robins services, one of the reasons I linked up with her on FB was to have access to what she had to offer. I have been unemployed for a long time now and the encouragement Robin provides via quotations and personal messages keeps you going one day at a time. She is committed to your success. I will be contacting her soon to see how she can assist me as I know my weak link is marketing myself - something Robin is very good at doing. I probably am premature in posting a review, but many business dealings for me involve the personal or people aspects. Robin is a wonderful person to both know and do business with. You will not be disappointed if you contact her! I wanted to clarify that hooking up on FB was so I could get to know Robin first. Recall that there is a personal aspect to my contacts. I can say that regardless of her profession, I would have requested a FB friend regardless. Her positive attitude glows from her posts and is infectious! August 23, 2011 at 11:47am

"" I had been following Robin for several years as one of the IT Consulting and Management Guru's prior to moving to the Pacific Northwest. Since I moved up here I had the honor of meeting her when she joined one of my groups. We have been communicating for some time and have recently started to do some business together. She is an absolutely incredible person when it comes to Consulting, Publishing, Coaching and helping you to re-ignite that passion that can change your professional life!

I can say that she has personally helped me more than words can say in mentoring me and transitioning my resume into a very powerful resume which is half the length and probably packs 75 times the punch my old one did. She has also been instrumental in coaching me to make some very smart choices about where I go from here professionally! Robin is simply awesome at everything she does, is an industry leader in Personal Development Coaching, Mentoring, Business Management, Business Coaching, Motivational Speaking, Job Coaching, Career Development, Human Resources and more and is very much in touch with small to huge business entities in the Seattle Tacoma area and around the US and I am sure you will love her both for her services, and her personality!

I look forward to doing more business with Robin in the future! Robin, here is to you! You ROCK! Thank you for all that you do to Inspire, Ignite and Accelerate people in their professional careers!

I highly recommend that you consult with her on your resume's at a bare minimum and also consider doing some career coaching and about anything else with her. She can assist you in obtaining that professional reward which you deserve. August 16, 2011 at 10:09pm

Jeff Lee I agree with you, Mr. Hobley. Even though I worked with a local HR rep to update my resume' and cover letter, I will be working with Robin soon to have a second look. Even though I paid to have this done - and it is pretty good - I am not getting interviews which tells me it needs another look from a different perspective. August 24, 2011 at 11:07am

"" Robin has exceeded my expectations. Her guidance was a blessing in an area that was extremely difficult for me. I feel confident in saying that I could not have handled this very delicate and difficult issue without her and her very compassionate assistance. She asks the right questions and offers several options that will guide one down the right path. It might be difficult to hear - but her honesty mixed with kindness and compassion are a gift from heaven. I will recommend ROBIN to anyone who needs personal or professional guidance. June 20, 2011 at 4:32pm

Jeanine Garner-Andres – “Robin is the best to have on your side when in the need for a new career! She helped me and I'm planning my first international vacation thanks to her!!!” March 12, 2011

"" I recommend them. They never stop supporting you. It is incredible what an edge they give you. It's hard to navigate through who can really help and who just wants to make a quick buck with minimal effort. RRR is the bargain of the century. Top notch resumes, cover letters and numerous leads!

"" RRR Consulting & Publishing has been there for me for as far back as I can remember. The owner, Robin, has helped me with legal paper work, my resume, my cover letter, job prospects, advice, all of which have been a very uplifting experience. Robin's positive outlook on life helps her to relate to everyone and to repeatedly give outstanding service to everyone she comes in contact with. I would refer her services to anyone! Great job, Robin!! January 29 at 8:38pm

Renee Obrycki, hired Robin R. as a Business Consultant in 1998, and hired Robin R. more than once

"I had the privilege of working with Robin for over 4 years at The Lighthouse for the Blind on several projects. She worked as a contract consultant and supported our departmental re-organizational efforts. I found Robin to be resourceful, hard working, knowledgeable, and professional at all times. She is detail oriented, organized, and self directed. Robin's ability to work with a sense of urgency and delivery of required documentation made it possible to establish a solid foundation to successfully change the culture of a traditional manufacturing plant to a customer driven workforce. Robin performed compensation benefit surveys and analysis. She helped develop and create job descriptions for a new customer service department including recommending job tiers for career paths and compensation/pay structures to ensure competitiveness in market place. In addition, she supported the customer service team by creating several custom order forms to support the rapid growth in business products division. I highly recommend Robin and would welcome the opportunity to work with her again. She would be an asset to any organization." January 26, 2011

"" Robin, thanks for all of your help and guidance with my family. After dealing with an unfair work environment with her previous employer my daughter now has a job thanks to your invaluable assistance that she LOVES and is doing great! And my son-in-law now has a much better outlook for his career in the computer field with your expertise in putting together an excellent resume. I will continue referring those with a need for your highly competent skills to you! October 26, 2010 at 10:06am
